Chancellor Commanders Message

My Pythian Family

I hope everyone has a Happy Thanksgiving, Happy Chanukah, a Merry Christmas, and a Happy New Year. On September 19th, the Deputy Grand Chancellor, our own David Salem, delivered the Grand Chancellor's message. It was very well attended by our members and Grand Lodge officers as well. On November 21, there will be a homecoming for the DGC. David has done an outstanding job for the lodge and for the order. Our entertainment committee is working very hard to bring us some great events. Please see David Salem's article elsewhere in this bulletin for more information. On Tuesday December 19th, we are having our year end party at the AOH. Please see David at meetings for reservations or contact him by December 5th. We are also planning to go on a weekend in the spring or summer of 2024. This is an event that hasn't been done for many years. Please look for more information in future newsletters. We are also looking to do a fund-raising event for Esquire Goodfellowship Lodge early in 2024. Please see or call Keith Karon for more details.

Fraternally yours,
Steven Needelman
Chancellor Commander

Saturday September 30, 18 Pythians had dinner at Perry's Restaurant and then played pool at Gotham Billiards. The usual suspects,

I mean Pythians, showed up, ate, talked, laughed, shared stories, and played billiards. Entertainment events, like Esquire Goodfellowship Lodge's Billiards Night, and other events, make being a Pythian rewarding.

Sunday, October 1, 2023, Pythians participated in the Walk to End Alzheimer's® in East Meadow, NY. Held annually in more than 600 communities nationwide, the Alzheimer's Association Walk to End Alzheimer's® is the world's largest fundraiser for Alzheimer's care, support and research. This inspiring event calls on participants of all ages and abilities to join the fight against the disease. It is wonderful that Pythians came together for an inspiring community event that celebrates the commitment to ending this disease. Special thanks to PCDGC/AGT Sir Marty Nyear and PACDGC Scott Geffon for being our team leaders, the Third Pythian District, Alliance-Mid Island Lodge #801 and Island Lodge #623 for their generous donations. Our Pythian team raised over $2,800. This year, the charity of the Knights of Pythias Order is the Alzheimer Association. Thank you to all who participated and donated to fight this dreadful disease.

BOWLING

Who wants to have some fun? David Steur wants to know if people would be interested in putting together a bowling team, perhaps to join a league at a local bowling alley.

Next time you see him at a meeting or event, tell him that you would enjoy doing that. His contact information can be found elsewhere in this newsletter.

Hello Pythian Brothers,

If you have
